DRAPERIES —AND— CURTAINS

On the first floor of our large store, where the light is the brightest and other conditions the best, we have assembled assortments of Draperies, Portieres and Curtains that for weeks to come will be the center of admiration of those who see them. Patterns, designs and blending of colors are the richest and newest that we could find. In addition to the attractiveness of the articles themselves, we have attached prices that should be big inducements to buyers.

A large number of people visited the George A. Wales farm in South Barre yesterday to view the ruins of the farm buildings which were destroyed by fire Saturday. There was little to see, as the flames had swept everything level with the ground, except for two small buildings. Mr. Wales' family was kindly accommodated at the house of Mr. Esterbrook in the South village. Mr. Wales' daughter got burned about the head while endeavoring to save some of the household goods. With D. C. Howard and several others, she went upstairs and was met by a volume of flames, which drove the party back. Snow had to be used to extinguish the fire which had communicated to their persons. The livestock, all of which was saved, is being cared for by neighbors.

The floral tributes at the funeral of Mrs. Nelson Hamel Saturday were as follows: spiritual bouquet, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. McSweeney; wreath of roses and carnations from Tow & Holden and employees; cross from the police department; carnations, John Emile, sons of James Ahern, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. McCarthy and from her brother, Miles; Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Bills Favored by Texas Labor Men. The joint legislative board of labor organizations in Texas has decided to urge the passage of the following measure by the legislature:

The miners' bill, designed to increase the safety of men who work in mines; the labor commissioner's bill, providing for the appointment of a commission of that name, whose duties shall be to secure the enforcement of all labor laws and collect statistics generally relative to labor; the full crew bill, intended to compel railway companies to man trains with sufficient men to properly handle same; the electric headlight bill, providing for the use of electric headlights on all locomotives or lights of equal brilliancy. This is designed to prevent collisions and minimize accidents caused by defect in tracks, obstructions, etc.

Irish Bog Oak. Irish bog oak is probably the best known example of workable wood dug from the ground. It is perfectly black and has good grain for carving.

Pingyang. Pingyang, in northern Korea, was the first "literary center" in the Peninsular Kingdom. Its chief author was an ancestor of Confucius named Kishi, who, gathering up his writing materials and leaving China in 1122 B. C., emigrated eastward into Korean region. His name is greatly venerated, and many tablets still exist in his honor in the northern parts of Korea.

Card of Thanks. We wish to extend thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kindness to us in our bereavement, especially Sister Joseph, son of Bridgeport, Conn., and two following who sang at the funeral, Miss Rose Cook, Miss Mary Canton, Fred and James Canton; we also thank those who contributed flowers.

The Daylight Store

Your Dressmaker Will Smile

If you ask her to fit over an R. and G. Corset. There is nothing so unsatisfactory to a dressmaker as to try to get a dress to fit over a poor grade of Corset (and there are lots of them sold). R. & G. Corsets have for the past three months been oversold. We have just received all sizes in these Corsets.

R. & G. CORSETS.

No. 671 is a White R. & G. Tapering Waist Corset, made like cut, with front and side Supporters. This is a Corset that other makers are trying to copy, and, like all imitations, for better trade are failures. This Corset sells for $1.00.

We are one of the few houses in Vermont that have the Spotless Steam Sponger.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

Our story is short. Cottons and laces cost more. In order to meet last season's quality with prices we are obliged to cut profits. This in the following Underwear will show very plain our design. We must advance prices later.

Night Robes of good muslin, full size and yokes tucked with fine tucks, are now only 50c.

Night Robes with Hamburg and hemstitched tucked yoke, now at 75c. Will be nearer one dollar later.

Corset Covers with hemstitched edged ruffles now for 25c.

Corset Covers with lace trimmings, having armsize trimmed, now at 25c. Worth 35c any day.

Here is a Corset Cover made of fine muslin, having fine plaited Val lace and insertion around yoke and armsize up to best 65c Cover and as good as many at 75c, now at 50c.

HAMBURGS.

These are lots that make underwear, and for that use we secured last Summer a purchase of Embroideries known as jobs or drives, goods that would sell in a regular way for half as much more and several of them at even more than that. At this time we always want some leader, so have cut what should be our profit on these lots and put them in as follows:

Lot No. 1—Hamburgs, that sell well over the counter unless in a sale at from 6c to 10c, in this sale now at 5c per yard.

Lot No. 2—Hamburgs that sell in regular way at from 15c to 25c, in a variety of widths, now at 12 1-2c per yard.

These two lots are especially calculated to sell to makers of Muslin Underwear.

At the City Bakery!

On oath and honor we hereby most positively declare that our Double Loaf Malt Bread, made of Pillsbury's flour and by Union bakers, is the best in the State. If you doubt our word try just one loaf and you will be convinced of its superiority to any other. You will notice also that it is white and light and yet firm.

Why is it that Mother's Bread was always good? Because it was made by hand and kneaded, and that is why ours is good. It is properly kneaded. Try one loaf, if no more. All leading grocers and butchers handle it, as follows: Merchant & Fraser, H. J. Smith, Dix & Coleman, Smith & Cumings, Tassie Brothers, John Griffin, J. D. Yandow, Aldrich, Graniteville, and Hopkins, Williamstown. Also leading restaurants and lunch rooms: Spear Brothers, Jack's Lunch Room, Miller's Baltimore Lunch Room and Graniteville Lunch Room.
